The Union shall certify to the Employer in writing each month a list of its members working for the Employer who have furnished to the Employer the required authorization, together with an itemized statement of dues, initiation fees (full or installment), or uniform assessments owed and to be deducted for such month from the pay of such member and the Employer shall deduct such amount and remit to the Union in one lump sum.
ARTICLE V

JOB STEWARDS

SECTION 5.1

The Employer recognizes the right of the Union to designate one (1) job steward and one (1) alternate. The Union shall notify the Employer of the names of such persons in writing within ten (10) days of such designation.

SECTION 5.2

The authority of the job steward and alternate so designated by the Union shall be limited to, and shall not exceed, the following duties and activities:

a. The investigation and presentation of grievances in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement;

b. The transmission of such messages and information which shall originate with, and are authorized by the Local Union or its officers, provided such messages and information:

The Employer in so recognizing such limitations shall have the authority to impose proper discipline, including discharge, in the event the shop steward has taken unauthorized strike action, slowdown, or work stoppage in violation of this Agreement.
SECTION 5.5

The steward shall be granted reasonable time, as determined by the supervisor, to process grievances and matters of concern to employees covered by this Agreement. Such time will not be deducted from wages.

Seniority is defined as the length of continuous service with the Employer within Relocation Services, Facilities Maintenance. The seniority date for an individual shall be his first day worked in Relocation Services, Facilities Maintenance. The Employer and the Union recognize the principle that the normal rules of seniority as presently practiced with regard to the bargaining unit shall prevail.

There shall be one (1) regular seniority list. The list of employees arranged in seniority order shall be posted in a conspicuous place at Relocation Services, Facilities Maintenance.

At the beginning of each calendar year, or when any changes take place, the Employer will post an up-dated seniority list. Claims for corrections to the list must be made to the Employer in writing, with a copy to the Union, within ten (10) days after posting and after such time the list will be regarded correct.

A copy of the seniority list shall be supplied to the Union upon request.

SECTION 6.2 Loss of Seniority

Seniority shall be broken and an employee’s rights under this Agreement forfeited for the following reasons:

1. Discharge.
2. Voluntary resignation.
3. Retirement.
4. Layoff due to lack of work in excess of twelve (12) months.
5. Failure to respond to a notice of recall as outlined in this Article.
6. Job abandonment, which is defined as absence of three (3) consecutive scheduled work days without notifying the Employer as soon as possible during said absence therefore, unless prevented from doing so by an illness or accident.
Any employee absent because of proven illness or injury shall continue to accumulate seniority provided, however, that he/she must report to the Employer his/her specific date of availability for work as soon as possible prior to the termination of such proven illness or injury.

SECTION 6.3 Layoff and Recall

a. When it becomes necessary to reduce the work force, the lowest employee on the regular seniority list shall be laid off first, and when the force is again increased the employees are to be offered the opportunity to return to work in the reverse order in which they were laid off.

In the event of a recall, employees shall be given notice of recall by e-mail, registered mail, or certified mail sent to the address last given the Employer by the employee. Within two (2) calendar days after tender of delivery of the Employer's notice at such address, the employee must notify the Employer by email, registered mail, or certified mail of his intent to return to work and must actually report to work within five (5) calendar days after date of tender of delivery of the recall notice or a date mutually agreed upon with the Employer. In the event the employee fails to comply with the above provisions, he shall lose all seniority rights under this Agreement and shall be removed from the rolls of the Employer. In the event an employee is contacted and accepts a recall to work by telephone and returns to work when called, it shall not be necessary that he be notified by email or mail.

ARTICLE VII

WORK ASSIGNMENTS

SECTION 7.1

The Employer agrees to respect the jurisdictional rules of the Union and shall not direct or require his employees or persons other than the employees in the bargaining unit here involved, to perform work of the employees in said unit except in case of emergency. This restriction shall not apply during peak working periods or when such assignments are made to cover shortages in the work force caused by absenteeism or vacations. This is not to interfere with bona fide contracts with bona fide unions.
ARTICLE VIII

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION 8.1

The purpose of this Article is to provide an orderly method for the expeditious settlement of a dispute between the Employer and the Union or an Employee over the interpretation, application or claimed violation of any of the specific provisions of this Agreement. Such a dispute shall be defined as a grievance under this Agreement and must be processed in accordance with the following steps, time limits and conditions. Any grievance not taken to the next step within the time limit specified shall be considered settled, unless the parties have agreed in writing to a specific extension of time.

Step 1  The grievance shall be taken up by the Job Steward and the employee with the Transportation Manager, Relocation Services, Facilities Maintenance within five (5) working days after the knowledge of grievance or the reason for the grievance has occurred, except that no time limit shall apply in case of a violation of the wage provisions of this Agreement. “Working days” means Monday through Friday, excluding observed holidays. Selection shall be made by the Employer and Union representatives alternately striking any name from the list until only one name remains. The final remaining name shall be the arbitrator of the grievance.

b.  The jurisdiction and authority of the arbitrator of the grievance and his/her opinion and award shall be confined exclusively to the specific provision or provisions of this Agreement at issue between the Union and the Employer. He/she shall have no authority to add to, alter, amend, or modify any provisions of this Agreement, including the Appendices hereto. The arbitrator shall not hear or decide more than one grievance without the mutual consent of the Employer and the Union. The award in writing of the arbitrator within his jurisdiction and authority as specified in this Agreement shall be final and binding on the aggrieved employee or employees, the Union and the Employer.

c. The Union and the Employer shall each bear its own expenses in these arbitration procedures, except that they shall share equally the fee and other expenses of the arbitrator in connection with the grievance submitted to him/her.

ARTICLE IX

Drinking - which shall include drinking an alcoholic beverage during working hours (including mealtime) or being impaired by or under the influence of alcohol when reporting to work or during working hours (including mealtime). Note: When the Employer has good reason to believe that an employee may be under the influence of alcohol, the Employer can require submission to a sobriety test. Any test for impairment by or under the influence of alcohol must be administered by a person qualified to conduct the test and evaluate the results of the test. It is specifically understood that the Union reserves the right to contest the qualification of the person administering the sobriety test.
and the burden of proof rests with the Employer to demonstrate that the person administering the sobriety test was, in fact, qualified.
When possible, the Employer shall utilize a doctor or clinic to administer the sobriety test. The Union shall advise the Employer of an available doctor or clinic and the hours available. This list of available doctors and clinics will be kept current. In the event an employee refuses to take a sobriety test administered by a qualified person, as described here, this shall be prima facie evidence of being under the influence.

For purposes of this Agreement, being under the influence of alcohol Employer.

determination to apply the principle of progressive discipline under the terms of this Agreement. A written notice must be issued within ten (10) days of the Employer's discovery of said infraction and shall remain in effect for only twelve
(12) months. It is the purpose of a written notice to alert an employee and his Union that certain conduct engaged in by the employee cannot be tolerated and must be remedied. Protest of a written notice shall be the primary responsibility of the employee receiving such a written notice. The written notice shall be either issued to the employee personally or by registered mail to the employee with a copy to the Union. Any protest of a written notice must be made in writing, and mailed within five (5) days from the date the employee received the written notice. An employee's protest of a written notice shall be either issued in person or issued to the Employer by registered mail, with a copy to the Union, and shall set forth in detail the basis for such protest. While recognizing that the primary responsibility to protest the issuance of a written notice rests with the employee involved, the Local Union does not waive any of its rights to independently protest the use of a written notice should further disciplinary action be taken based upon a prior written notice. Written notices, as such, shall not be subject to arbitration under the terms of this provision.

SECTION 9.3

The Employer may extend the probationary period up to thirty (30) working days. The Union shall be notified in writing of such an extension. During the probationary period, the Employer shall be the sole judge of the fitness and suitability for continued employment for the persons so hired, and any decision arrived at shall not be subject to the grievance procedure under Article VIII. If

When any employee shall have completed his period of probation, he shall be placed on the seniority list and his seniority shall begin on the first day of employment within the probationary period referred to in the above sections.
