We will continue to provide you with information on Open Enrollment in the upcoming weeks.

The Benefits Call Center at (888) 4GWUBEN (4498236) or benefits@gwu.edu will be available to answer your questions regarding any of GW’s health and welfare employee benefit plans.

Questions regarding any of GW’s health and welfare benefits should be directed to:

- Benefits Call Center at (888) 4GWUBEN (4498236) or benefits@gwu.edu
- Webinars will be offered multiple days and times throughout the Open Enrollment period to offer guidance to you and your family. You are encouraged to view the webinar schedule here.

To view the webinar schedule and to register for webinars and 1:1 appointments.

Welcome to the 2022 Open Enrollment season!

Bobby Lee, Open Enrollment Manager

In order to ensure you have the opportunity to review your current benefit elections and make any changes to ensure that your benefits continue to support you and your family to the best of our abilities.

During this time, we ask for your patience and to resist the urge to call us. Each call is a drain on our resources and is a risk to the health and safety of our team members.

Bobby Lee, Open Enrollment Manager

Authorizing your flu shot will not be covered if you use your own IPV or do not use your mandatory maintenance prescription.

The annual maximum for the Health Care FSA continues to be $2,750. The annual maximum for the Health Savings Account (HSA) will remain the same at $5,000 (or $2,500 if you and/or your family’s income is below the Federal Poverty Level). The monthly contributions will increase by $0.025 for individual coverage and $0.05 for family coverage for 2022.

The GW match for the HSA contributions will depend on the plan selected. The maximum match for the HSA contribution will remain the same at $600 (or $300 if you and your spouse file separate tax returns).

The annual maximum for the Dental Plan will remain the same at $5,000 (or $2,500 if you and/or your family’s income is below the Federal Poverty Level). The monthly contributions will increase by $0.025 for individual coverage and $0.05 for family coverage for 2022.
