For covered employees in the State of Connecticut, the Connecticut Paid Leave program offers the opportunity to take time to take care of personal and family health needs without worrying about lost income while you are away from work.

Key Dates

JANUARY 1, 2021: Employer began withholding employee contributions (one-half of one percent of each paycheck (0.5%) and remitting these contributions to the CT Paid Leave (CTPL) Authority trust fund.

JANUARY 1, 2022: Covered employees can apply for, and may receive, paid leave benefits.

Employee Eligibility

All employers* with one or more employees are covered under the CTPL program.

Covered employees are eligible for CTPL program benefits if they have:
• Earned wages of at least $2,325 in the highest quarter in the first four of five most recently completed quarters; and
• Are currently employed OR have been employed within the 12 weeks immediately preceding their leave.

*Unionized employees of the State of Connecticut and employees of the federal government, municipalities, local or regional boards of education, sovereign nations, or non-public elementary or secondary schools are not covered under the program at this time.

Wages may include salary or hourly pay, vacation pay, holiday pay, tips, commissions, severance pay and the cash value of any “in-kind” payments. Wages from multiple covered employers may be combined.

Benefit Rates

Benefit rates vary based on income.

The benefit rate is capped at 60 times the CT minimum wage.

• CT minimum wage multiplied by 60 will be equal to $780 weekly in January 2022, increasing to $840 on July 1, 2022, and $900 on June 1, 2023.

An employee may receive CT Paid Leave benefits at the same time as employer-provided benefits so long as the employee’s total compensation does not exceed 100% of their normal wages.
