Dependents – Eligibility

Definition: Dependents include: Spouses, Domestic Partners, Children (an eligible child includes a natural child, stepchild, a legally adopted child, a child placed for adoption, or a child for whom the employee or his or her spouse/dominic partner, are the legal guardian.)

Note for Children age 24 or older -- Tax dependent status is defined by the Internal Revenue Service. To determine whether a child meets the test in order to qualify as a tax dependent, please refer to IRS Publication 17. A copy of pages 1 and 2 of the most recent tax return (form 1040) from his or her parent with sensitive information redacted is required for proof of tax dependent status.

For additional information, please refer to the Tuition Remission Benefit Policy on the tuition remission webpage.

Eligible Programs

All regular programs and courses that are offered and billed by GW

Ineligible Programs and Courses

- Certain Executive Degrees
- M.D. Degree within the Medical School
- Consortium programs in affiliation with other universities
- GW Pre-College programs
- Online courses, certificates and certifications that are fee based, outsourced or have a shared revenue component with a third party (e.g., courses and programs offered by or billed by 2U, Colloquy and EMBANET) are ineligible for tuition remission coverage.

• The Tuition Remission Benefit applies only to courses and programs offered and billed by GW.

• Employees who wish their spouse or domestic partner to utilize the benefit for a specific program or course must contact that school to verify eligibility as well as the GW Benefits for tuition remission coverage.

• For additional information on eligible/ineligible programs or courses, please refer to the tuition remission webpage.

Undergraduate Courses: Generally tax-free

Graduate/Doctorate Courses: All graduate-level coursework taken by an employee’s spouse/domestic partner and/or dependent child is required to be reported as imputed taxable income to the employee. Taxes will be deducted from the employee’s paychecks based on the benefit amount to be paid within a semester.

GW Benefits will apply tax deductions for the given semester and inform employee(s) via email with details

- Employees who received the email notice for tax deductions, must inform GW Benefits if their Spouse/Domestic Partner/Children added or dropped courses so the tax deductions can be adjusted
- The benefit amount received must be paid in full within a given semester
- For additional information, please check the tuition remission webpage
Pay Stub – Example – Tax Deductions

Dependent Tuition Benefit Amount Subject to Tax: $10,140.00

Bi-Weekly Pay *(6) Six Scheduled Deductions
$1,690.00 taxable amount per paycheck

Pay Record Prior to Taxable Withholdings

</tbody>
</table>

Variance $679.50 - $975.19 = $295.69 - This is the net amount of tax paid per check

The actual tax withholding amount is determined by income, tax brackets and designations you indicated on federal and state tax withholding forms.
Important Points

• Dependents must check available programs at GW
• Employees must verify their benefits eligibility with GW Benefits
• Once a dependent is accepted in a GW program, the Employee must visit the tuition remission webpage and review:
  o Tuition Remission Benefit Policy
  o Important Dates for Eligibility
  o Ineligible Programs and Courses
  o Tutorials
  o FAQs and many more

• Place the important deadlines in your personal calendar to apply for the benefit (you must apply for the benefit on your dependent’s behalf every semester)

• For additional information about the Tuition Remission Program, please contact us via email at tuition@gwu.edu or via phone at 571-553-8249
